This one was a felt board story from last months space theme. The children really enjoyed it so I wanted to share it with you.

5 little aliens went out to play over the moon to the milky way.

Father alien went hep, hep, hep

but only 4 little aliens came floating back.

repeat... 4-3 3-2 2-1

Mother alien went HEP, HEP, HEP and the 5 little aliens came floating back

Donations

With our upcoming move we are looking for large Rubbermaid bins to help with the packing.

Spring Cleaning?

If you are cleaning out the garage and you find some things you would like to pass along we are always grateful for any new to us outdoor toys.

We are always looking for more tricycles and the children would really love it if we could have a few more play lawnmowers.
